Swiss Miss 2015

It is time for the Midway 2015 Swiss Miss Pageant!

The Swiss Miss Royalty serve as ambassadors of Midway City by participating in parades, performances and provide valuable service to the community throughout the year of their reign.

An orientation tea is scheduled for Saturday February 7, at 11:00am, at the Midway Community Center located at 160 West Main Street in Midway. Interested contestants and their parents are invited to attend.

Item 1. Update from Mayor Colleen Bonner –
No update, Mayor Bonner was not present at this meeting.

Item 2. Review list of past community funding grants and scholarships for 2013-2014 – Larry Bonner passed out a handout itemizing donations and scholarships for 2013 and 2014 (see attached handout). 2015 total budgeted amount for these items is fourteen thousand (14,000) dollars; four (4,000) thousand dollars for scholarships and ten thousand (10,000) dollars for donations. One thousand (1,000) dollars has been allocated to the Wasatch County Arts Council for 2015. There was a discussion regarding the newly purchased Piano and if there were any issues regarding this that pertained to the grant and scholarship budget. Money to purchase the Piano was taken from the Cannery budget that was intended for parking lot improvements, which did not occur during 2014 but are part of the ongoing improvements to the Cannery. Notice went out to apply for grants, there is currently one (1) grant application received by the Wasatch County Centennial Committee. Board acknowledged that there is a lack of applications and that consideration will be given during the year for group's who ask for donations. Board discussed the need to encourage groups to apply for grants during January and February.

Item 3. Review options and determine a final decision in regards to funding the Centennial Plaza – Kevin Snow passed out the grant application from the Wasatch County Centennial Committee with the artist's rendering/concept plan for the monument (see handout). Discussion of Board support for this monument, location and funding. Funding request is twenty-five thousand (25,000) dollars. Does the Board support this amount of funding? Is this done at one time or over several years in smaller increments? Discussion regarding funding at a lesser amount, that the current request is about fifty (50) percent of the annual Boosters total budget. Discussion of support for this monument, amount of money to support with, utilizing Board reserves or not to fund the request. Discussion of other important and supported needs by Boosters such as ongoing improvements to the Cannery building. Discussion of committing to this beyond three years due to the rotation of Board members and not wanting to encumber a future board. Discussion regarding Board support for this Monument at the location of Centennial Park. Discussed total cost of Monument set at $250,000 not currently fully funded. Work has begun and some of the Bronze statues have

Boosters Board Meeting Minutes April 23, 2015

Looking at possibility of adding a waffle booth to the food court area that will replace one of the Swiss Chicken booths that was eliminated. Update on the entertainment for Swiss Days – Carey Henderson is the chairman. Request are coming in from individuals and groups that are interested in participating this year. Suggestion to relocate baggage drop to another area as it conflicts with the delivery of baked goods. This is the last year that Carey Henderson will be involved with the entertainment as she has moved to St. George. Swiss Days Committee is looking for someone else to take over this committee if there are suggestions for a replacement let Swiss Days Committee know, suggestion of Doug Osmond was given. Would like to utilize local talent for some of the entertainment. Carey Henderson has done a tremendous job.
- B. Beautification Committee – Karla Jenkins: Flower baskets will be picked up on Friday June 5, 2015. Need additional truck(s) and enclosed trailer(s) to help with picking up flower baskets. Suggestion to ask Andy Peirce to help with his large box truck. There are 124 baskets to pick up, which is 24 more than last year. Discussing renting one large U-Haul truck and having one or two additional trucks and trailers. Will hang the baskets on Saturday June 6, 2015.

frame that Boosters need it done by. Boosters was considering making a donation to the High School for this work. Had Clint Coleman look at it, he estimated the work at eight thousand (8,000) to nine thousand (9,000) dollars. Boosters will continue to fund repair/replacement each year for an annual cost of five hundred (500) to six hundred (600) dollars with the Swiss Miss and families doing the repairs. Will look at the High School doing the update as a possible project in the fall of 2015 after Swiss Days. Will look at covering it for the winter as most of the damage occurs at this time. If the tech teachers are not able to commit than possibly the Ag teachers may be able to do it. Another possibility may be Laren Gertsch, he and his sons are good do it yourself handymen. Ralph?? Another name suggested for this work he is retired and worked for US Steel.

- D. Scholarship Committee – Maggie Fugitt: Passed out a handout (see attached handout) from a meeting with Jeff Danley with Wasatch Community Foundation (WCF). Applications are available to seniors on April 23rd and due back on May 8th. WCF and Committee will review applications. WCF would like to match at least two thousand (2,000) dollars up to four thousand (4,000) dollars. Booster's monetary commitment of four thousand (4,000) dollars has been sent to WCF. WCF encourages all Booster Board Members to attend the presentation. Discussion by Board to use Booster contribution as one thousand (1,000) dollar scholarships to Midway senior students.
- E. 4th of July Committee – Jack Zenger, Kevin Snow: Invitation to speak went to Layne McCotter and he graciously and kindly declined due to the situation with his wife and her need for care. Committee has three (3) other options and will continue to pursue them.
- F. Merchandising Committee – Craig Simons: Krista Lewis things are in the works, samples are coming in. Scott James is working on this year's charm.

Item 7. Other Business – Next Month Discussions:

Need to discuss Swiss Christmas, Creche, food tents and entertainment soon. Flower hanging reach out to Russ Watts for the man lift. Piano lock lost. There is an informal procedure with the City on storing and locking it up. There are three (3) keys (Doug Jenkins, Kevin Snow and Georgia with Midway City). City has trained two individuals in regard to this. Suggestion was made to require a deposit for the use which would be returned upon confirmation of the piano being placed back and locked up. City has concerns with non-city employees operating the lift. Want the piano to be used by the community but not abused. Suggestion to discuss the operation and procedures regarding proper use and care of the piano with the City is warranted.

Next Board meeting set for Thursday May 14, 2015.

Adjournment: 8:40 pm.

New arts organization seeks input at community meeting on May 27

On Wednesday, May 27, the newly reorganized Wasatch County Arts Council (WCAC) will be holding a public meeting at the Heber Valley Chamber of Commerce, 475 N. Main in Heber, at 6 pm for all interested in fostering and growing arts and culture in Wasatch County.

WCAC president Courtney Christensen said this meeting will be the first of many future opportunities for the arts community to come together to discuss needs, wants, visions and collaboration.

"At this first gathering we hope to help show not only the arts community, but the entire county, that we have a vested interest in seeing the future success of all art forms in Wasatch County through collaborative partnerships," said Christensen.

The WCAC mission is to cultivate increased visibility and support for all forms of art in Wasatch County. Sue Waldrip, who serves as a vice president on the council, said one role the WCAC will fulfill is to be the unifying voice in procuring funding and publicizing the arts.

"In an emerging arts community, there is normally a disconnect and often competition between the groups," said Waldrip. "The formation of an active Wasatch County Arts Council is an effort to bind the groups together in a cohesive group to work together to build the reach of the arts in Wasatch County."

Some of the recent successes of the new council include a $1,000 scholarship distributed through the Wasatch Community Foundation for a Wasatch High senior interested in the arts and a new partnerships with the Wasatch County Council and Midway Boosters in supporting local arts entities.

"Having the support of the County Council and Midway Boosters has been a great accomplishment. We are grateful they see the value the arts can have on our community," said Christensen.

In September 2014, members of the community gathered together at the Utah Valley University Wasatch Campus to formally reorganize the past arts council. At this meeting six motivated arts-minded residents were selected to be the Wasatch County Arts Council executive board. Later a seventh board member was selected.

Those currently serving on the board are Courtney Christensen, president; Newell Bullen, vice president; Trudi Harter, vice president; Sue Waldrip, vice president; Ellen Bonner, secretary; Pat Sweeney, treasurer; and Dallin Koecher, communications.

For more information on the community meeting on May 27 at the chamber of commerce at 475 N Main go to wasatchcountyarts.com or email Courtney at courtney@wasatchcountyarts.com.

Midway announces Wilson families as Honored Citizens for 2015

Emer & Leah Wilson

Doyle & Barbara Wilson

Mark & Jorgene Wilson

Each year the Midway Boosters select an individual or couple to be recognized as the City of Midway's Honored Citizens. This year the Boosters have selected not just an individual or couple, but a family who has always worked and served together as one. This year's Honored Citizens are the Emer and Leah Wilson, Doyle and Barbara Wilson, and Mark and Jorgene Wilson families. Emer and Leah Wilson are the parents of Doyle and Mark, who have remained lifetime residents of Midway. To honor just one of them would not have seemed right to those of us who have been recipients of their combined compassion and service.

Emer and Leah Wilson

Emer Wilson was born and grew up in Midway. His Grandpa Wilson homesteaded the land at the foot of Wilson Peak and his Grandpa Hufaker had a farm in String Town. Emer loved farming and Midway and spent his entire life as a Midway citizen. He graduated from Wasatch High School, served an LDS mission in Northern California and then brought his bride, Leah Henrie, to Midway. Leah spent her childhood days on a dry farm in Southern Idaho. After she graduated from Box Elder High School she was called as a missionary to the Hawaiian Islands. Shortly after she arrived, she watched the bombing of Pearl Harbor. Several months later she was transferred to California where Emer was serving. Although they never met in the mission field, they were married in December of 1944. They built a home on the farm located on River Road where they worked and raised their five children: Sherry, Doyle, Mark, Ross, and Dale. Service was a major part of the lives of Emer and Leah. Leah always grew a beautiful vegetable garden and quietly shared it with neighbors. She volunteered for Swiss Days every year and served in the Midway First Ward as a Relief Society, youth and Scout leader for many years. Emer was a member of the Boosters from its inception, serving on numerous committees as well as president. He was president of the Wasatch County Farm Bureau and North Field Irrigation Company for many years and spent his adult life as an active board member of Midway Irrigation Company. He was a 4-H leader and Scoutmaster for over 30 years. Emer and Leah were neighbors to everyone. When you needed help or support, you could always count on them being in your "trench." Leah Wilson passed away in 2002, and Emer Wilson in 2009.

Doyle and Barbara Wilson

Doyle Wilson was born and raised in Midway on the family farm. He attended Midway Elementary and graduated from Wasatch High School, Snow College, and Utah State University. He met and married Barbara Jones from Lehi, Utah and they were married in the Logan Temple in 1972 while both were attending USU. One year later they both graduated with teaching degrees and Doyle was commissioned an officer in the US Air Force where he served for 7 years. Doyle and Barbara moved back to the family farm in Midway 36 years ago to raise their family of 4 children: Jared, Kurt, Jenaca, and Kelly. Doyle was active in community affairs and served in his church as a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He was on the Wasatch County Farm Bureau, Wasatch County Planning Commission, and a board member of the Midway Irrigation Company. He served as bishop of the Midway First Ward, and later served with Barbara in the Provo Temple. Doyle and Barbara have been lifelong Swiss Days volunteers doing a variety of things such as working in food booths, baking Swiss bread and bratzeli. They served as the Midway Boosters committee chairmen for the Swiss Days parade for three years. Doyle was instrumental in starting the tradition of lighting off fireworks from Memorial Hill for the Fourth of July. He prepared the meat for the barbeque beef dinner for many years. Doyle enjoyed driving his restored 1950's Ferguson T035 tractor in the Swiss Days parade. Each year he pulled a sheep camp trailer with his 11 grandchildren inside. Doyle passed away earlier this year at the age of 67 at his home in beloved Midway. His life was an example of silent and selfless service. His wife Barbara and children are striving to carry on with his great legacy as they serve in their cherished community of Midway.

Mark and Jorgene Wilson

Mark and Jorgene Wilson have deep roots in Midway and their family continues to grow here. Raised on the family farm Mark graduated from Wasatch High School. Both he and Jorgene attended Utah State University where they met and were later married. After graduating they moved home to Midway to help with the farming and livestock. In 1976 Mark, along with his brother and father, started Wilson Sheep Camps. The entrepreneur's spirit runs through both Mark and Jorgene as she designed and patterned crafts and then sold the designs to craft magazines. She has a passion for gardening and the creative arts. She has become accomplished in painting, crafting, sewing, and handwork. She served at Midway Elementary helping in the classrooms of their children. Mark served with the North Fields Irrigation Company, holding the position of President for multiple years, also working with the Farm Service agency (FSA) and the Central Utah Water Conservancy District. Mark along with his son Brady fabricated the aluminum pillar tops for the Memorial Hill Veteran's Memorial. Mark and Jorgene continue to serve diligently as members of the LDS church. She has served in many capacities of the church including: the Relief Society, Young Women's, and Primary organizations. Mark served for many years as a Scoutmaster, in the primary and he served faithfully as bishop of the Midway 1st Ward. They have supported the Swiss Day's organization over the years, volunteering in the booths, baked goods preparation, the finance committee, and the booth committee. He welded all of the metal frames for the booths used at Swiss Days and did the welding for the shelter on town square. Mark cooked the meat for the BBQ dinner for two years and then continued to help when the job became Doyle's. Today they continue the tradition of family and service with their 5 children: Wesley, Coni, Cody, Brady and Stacey and 15 grandchildren.

Midway Booster
Board Meeting October 8, 2015 7:00 p.m.

Attended by: Chip & Kathey Maxfield, Kevin & Tara Snow, Jack Zenger, Doug & Karla Jenkins, Maggie Fugitt, Michael & Kristen vonRosen, David & Tonia Webb, Scott & Krista Lewis, Lana Nielson, Craig & Nancy Simons and Colleen Bonner.

Welcome by Kevin Snow

Prayer given by David Webb

Rachel Koehler from the Heber Valley Tourism came and made a presentation. She talked about the need for more money to fund the various events that will help drive visitors and consumers to our area. She discussed Winterfest and said that they are in the negative with the funds necessary to pull off the event. Solder Hollow has stated that they will be in charge of a Winterfest event, ice castles will be there too. Rachel informed the board that Cowboy Poetry ticket sales were down from where they needed to be at that time and requested a donation from the Midway Boosters. The board discussed, voted and approved a $1000 donation to be made to Cowboy Poetry. She also talked about the impact that social media has and the power in generating new visitors to the area, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc. She thanked the boosters for their past support and said that they appreciate what we all can do for each other.

Mayor Bonner asked if everyone received their ballots and reminded and encouraged all to vote. She talked about the possibility they are looking in to of putting some type of roof over the ice rink. That is still in discussion and may not be feasible. She reminded boosters that there should be a representative from the board at the meeting in January where the dates are coordinated for the use of the buildings. She talked about adding more Christmas lights this year and mentioned that the ice rink was set to open the week of Thanksgiving. There was a vote taken at the council meeting and it was agreed that the use of food trucks would be permitted during Swiss Christmas. Tree lights to be turned on November 28. Town Christmas event is on 12/7/15 at 7:00pm.

Doug and Karla discussed Swiss Christmas. Vendors, entertainment, food, publicity. More definite info will be given at the board meeting in November.

Kevin briefly discussed the board vacancies that would be coming in January and a brief discussion was had regarding a few names of people who have been recommended. A goal to try and diversify the board and have a representation from all areas of Midway is the goal.

Chip and Kathey discussed the "meet the candidates" night which will be held on Oct 15 from 7-8pm. They also discussed the board Christmas Party which will be held at Rosa's in Heber. It will be a nice Italian buffet dinner.

Meeting adjourned. Next meeting will be held 11/12/15 at 7:00pm.
